[From the San Francisco "Argonaut."] Sunday.

AIR: -" We bipeds made up of frail clay. We zealots, made up of stiff clay, The sour-looking children of sorrow. While not over jolly to-day, Resolve to be wretched to-morrow.

We can't for a certainty tell What mirth may molest us on Monday; But at least, to begin the week well, Let us all be unhappy on Sunday, That day, the calm season of rest, Shall come to us freezing and frigid a gloom all our thoughts shall invest Such as Calvin would call over-rigid With sermons from morning till night We'll strive to be decent and dreary: To preachers a praise and delight.

All tradesmen cry up their own wares-In this they agree well together; The mason by stone and lime swears, The tanner is always for leather: The smith still for iron would go,

Who think not that sermons can wears

The schoolmaster stands up for teaching, And the parson would have you to know There's nothing on earth like his preaching The face of kind Nature is fair, But our system obscures its effulgence

How sweet is a breath of fresh air ! But our rules don't allow us indulgence. These gardens, their walks and green bowers, Might be free to the poor man for one day; But no, the glad plants and gay flowers Mustn't bloom or smell sweetly on Sunday. What though a good precept we strain

Till hateful and hurtful we make it-What though in thus pulling the rein We may draw it so tight as to break it Abroad we forbid folks to roam, For fear they'll get social or frisky; But of course they can sit still at home, And get dismally drunk upon whiskey.

Then, though we can't certainly tell How mirth may molest us on Monday At least, to begin the work well, Let us all be unhappy on Sunday. ALAMEDA, February, 1879.

VARIETY.

"A man break his heart?" sneered the Widow Pilkins. " Perhaps he does, as a lobster breaks his claw, and another grows again." A woman cannot put on any side-saddle style when she goes swimming. She has either got to kick out like a man or get drowned.

The natives of Lord Howe's Island in the South Pacific petitioned for four schoolmasters and some iron pots. The gentle aborigines evidently contemplated giving a party. These beautiful lines will sing themselves to many a sorrowing heart :-White winged angels met our child On the vestibule of life. " Little boy," said a woman to a boy who had been impudent to her, "have you a mother?" "No; but pap wouldn't marry you if there wasn't a housekeeper in the whole dang land." They had a stuttering man on the witness stand in Kansas City the other day, and after the lapse of twenty-eight minutes he had only got as far as: "D-d-d-d-damfino."—Detroit Free

A sharp, thirsty man now walks into a barroom and asks if he can "put up" his silk um-brella for a drink. The bartender acquiesces, the chap gets a drink, raises his umbrella and The little one made a beautiful answer without knowing it. " What! Kiss such a homely man as papa?" said the mother in fun. " Oh, but papa is real pretty in his heart," was the reply. There are some people whose lives are like mo-lasses with a spoonful of vinegar in it, and others whose lives are like vinegar with a spoonful of There are those who take up so much time in profession that there is none left in which to practice. They are like the cinnamon tree, for the bark is the best part of them. A man spent three weeks in an unsuccessful effort to teach his parrot a verse of Scripture. The same bird, in the succeeding four weeks, learned to swear frightfully without a teacher. Parrots and boys are nearly alike in this respect.

" Mother wants you to let her take your polonaise pattern, and be so kind as to fill this cup with yeast, and is your clock right, and what time is it, and a little meal in this pan, and won't you write down your receipt for rye muffins, and please not let your turkeys roost on our fence any more, cause dad says he'll shoot them."

WHAT SHE DOES.—Somebody says that the woman who runs into a neighbour's because it thunders, and screams at every flash, will, when she goes home and finds the fire low, hurry it up with kerosene turned on from a gallon can, as calmly as a doctor giving a haby a spoonful of narcotic soothing syrup.

Snipkins refused to get his wife a new hat, and soon after his little girl came in and said, " Mamma, won't you buy me a monkey to play with when you go down town?" " No, darling -wait till you are older, and then marry one as I did," replied the grief-stricken wife, with her tears bursting out afresh. " A smile," says an inexperienced writer,

"costs the giver nothing, yet is beyond price to the erring and repentant." Such ignorance is deplorable. A "smile" does cost the giver some-thing, unless he can persuade the bartender to MPORTERS AND DEALERS IN HARD-WARE, Dry Goods, Paints, Oils, and General Merchandise, no17 Corner Fort and King Sts. 1y put it on the slate. And it is not beyond price to the erring and repentant, either. It is not worth more than ten cents to them. It is said that the reason why bigamy is of such rare occurrence in Hungary is that once on a time a man who was convicted of this crime was sentenced by the Court to live for two years with both wives. The punishment was considered cruel, but it had the desired effect. OFFICE, WAILURU, MAUL.

" Do you really believe that an ass ever spoke to Balaam?" queried a man who prided himself on his intellect. Coleridge, to whom the question was put, reflected very calmly for a few moments, and then responded, "My friend, I have no doubt whatever that the story is true. 1 have been spoken to in the same way myself." to let you carry the pocketbook again." ONE OF THE ADVANTAGES OF MATRIMONY .- He used to cramp his feet up in little boots, and limp painfully to her residence every Saturday evening; but the morning after his marriage he went into a shoemaker's, drew a chalk-mark around his foot, and about an inch distant from it on both sides and at the heel and toe, and ordered the man to make him a pair of boots after that pattern. Oh, there's sweet liberty, there's balmy, boundless freedom in the marriage state, of which sore-heeled and distorted bachelors have no conception.

THEO. H. DAVIES, Agent. M. J. ROSE, SHOP ON KING ST., HONOLULU, HAVING JUST TURNED OUT A PINE Wagonet for HIS MAJESTY, KING KALAKAUN, and

m. M. Wagonet for HIS MAJESTY, KING KALAKAUJI, and no newspaper man or reporter having said one word in regard to it, I shall, therefore, blow my own horn. It is only resently that Carriages has become so common that almost every householder has got one.

IN THE BORIPTURES, Carriages or Charlots are frequently alluded to. Upon the flight of the Israelites from Egypt, King Pharaoh pursued them with Six Hundred Charlots, all of which were awallowed up by the waters of the Red Sea. And when Israel made up his mind to pay his son Joseph a visit, Joseph telegraphed the old gentleman to come down to Goshen and he would meet him there and drive him down to Egypt in a Jaggon, (wagon.)

Charlots and Carriages were mostly used by Kings and Grandees on state occasions. Chariots and Carriages were mostly used by Rings and Grandees on state occasions.

The Greeks and Romane had Chariots; but strange to say, it was as late as the sixteenth century, in 1850, that Carriages were introduced into France, and at that date only three were known in Paris, then quite a large city.

M. J. ROSE is now prepared to furnish almost any kind of vehicle that may be ordered of him; has got some of the Best Skilled Mechanics that can be had in any country.

Also has received a large invoice of ALL KINDS OF STOCK, such as Hubs, Spokes, Jeliose, Shafts, and one thousand other things, too numerous too mention. But to continue the strange in the s
